

THE STYLE LIST

29 HOME COMFORTS

AS CHOSEN BY LILY AND HER DAUGHTERS, ETHEL AND MARNIE, OVER BREAKFAST ONE MORNING

BAKE OFF

From roasts to lasagnes, this glazed tray by Mud Australia (a Lily favourite) is all you need (£112, mudaustralia.com).

COCKTAIL HOUR

Be the hostess with the finest gin selection thanks to Ella James's chic gold bar cart (£275, ellajames.co.uk).

POND LIFE

You had no idea you needed a frog pitcher, but now you've seen it... (£63, aportuguese loveaffair.co.uk)

LAY OVER

Slowdown Studio is your new go-to for luxe throws with a serious creative streak (£175, opumo.com).

HIDDEN TREASURE

Keep the bits and bobs you're forever searching for in Jonathan Adler's Weed canister (£28, jonathanadler.com).

FUN GUY

From the legendary Stüssy streetwear brand comes this excellent mushroom vase (£74, goodhoodstore.com).

CABBAGE PATCH

Show off your home baking prowess with Arket's kitsch Bordallo Pinheiro cake stand (£39, arket.com).

SIT PRETTY

Mother and daughter duo Scott & Taylor update school chairs of old (£195, scottandtaylorlondon.com).

PLAY NICE

This Printworks yatzy will at least look fetching before your games night descends into chaos (£17, skandium.com).

TURN IT UP

Pump some cheer into your home with the Hay x Sonos limited edition smart speaker in yellow (£229, sonos.com).

JUST FUND IT

Posterzine's latest issue includes an A1 poster by bootlegging designer Jonny Banger (£7.99, posterzine.com).

SERVE LOOKS

Parisian artist Nathalie Lété has turned her hand to homewares with this gorgeous tea tray (£32, amara.com).

SHARP IDEA

Fabiano's pencil tree is the thinking way to keep your drawing bits organised (£38, conranshop.co.uk).

YOUR TYPE

The DOT Mechanical Keyboard from Lofree gives a retro typewriter experience without the hassle (£84, lofree.co).

TRUE ICON

Handmade in Mexico, add colour to your space with Milagros' tin Virgin of Guadalupe (£9, milagros.co.uk).

NEW GROWTH

Add some glorious green with this Echeveria affinis from plant specialist Prick (£17.50, prickldn.com).

FACE VALUE

Utensils that are perfect for cooking, serving, or putting on a puppet show (£2.50 per utensil, thorstenvanelten.com).

GRUB'S UP

Engel's bamboo bowls come in six pastel colours with a luxe matte finish (£5.50 each, lunaandcurious.com).

LETTER PERFECT

Ideal for decorating desktops, the Alphabet Pot has your name (well, initial) on it (£40, pentreath-hall.com).

JURASSIC ART

House of Hackney's new wallpaper is called Dinosauria – what's not to love? (£185 per roll, houseofhackney.com)

STIR CRAZY

London-based Matilda Goad has created a teaspoon set for colour lovers (£70 for eight, matildagoad.com).

LIKE A PILL

Argentine ceramic artist Kinska's handmade Pain Killer Capsule is an utterly original piece of art (£350, kinska.com).

HAPPY FEET

Whether soft or hard, eat your egg from this tongue-in-cheek chicken feet cup (£3.25, stufffortheKitchen.co.uk).

STICK IT TO THEM

David Shrigley's Politicians Make Me Sick magnet resonates in these times (£8.50, twentytwentyone.com).

BIG BLOOMS

Behold Grace and Thorn's Mama Didn't Raise No Fool offbeat bouquet (from £60, graceandthorn.com).

HOT PROPERTY

Strike the Archivist's rainbow-tipped matches on the bottom of the bottle to get a flame (£10.95, trouva.com).

TIME TRAVEL

Bella Freud's 1970 cashmere wool cushion inspired by Patti Smith will never go out of style (£180, bellafreud.com).

LET'S DRINK

With its own pouch and cleaning brush, the Sol Cups water bottle is for life (£34, aidareshoreditch.co.uk).

EMERALD CITY

Add some romance to your dressing table with this pot by Louise Roe (£59, couvertureandthegarbstore.com).

